Uniform State Test

Learn  Mortgage

Chapter Objectives

- Identify the elements that affect the Uniform State Test
- Recognize the regulatory authority of federal and state mortgage entities
- Recognize the definitions of components and concepts in the mortgage industry
- Identify licensing laws and requirements that regulate MLOs and other mortgage professionals
- Describe compliance conditions and practices that apply to the mortgage industry

SAFE Act State Regulatory Authority

- Housing and Economic Recovery Act
  - Signed into law on July 30, 2008
  - Designed to assist with the recovery of America's residential housing market
  - The SAFE Act is a key component of HERA
    - Required CSBS and AARMR to establish and maintain a nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry
    - The CSBS and AARMR developed a model state law
    - States required to use MSL to establish state minimum standards for MLO licensing and registration

Public Law 110-289

State Regulatory Authority

- SAFE Act
  - Has jurisdiction in all states, as well as the U.S. territories of Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands, and Guam
- Mandates of Public Law 110-289
  - Industry: All residential MLOs must be state-licensed or federally registered
  - States: All states must have a system of licensing in place for residential MLOs that meets national definitions and minimum standards
  - All states must license MLOs through the NMLS

Public Law 110-289

MLO License Compliance

- Taking a Loan Application Defined

Receipt by an individual, for the purpose of facilitating a decision whether to extend an offer of loan terms to a borrower or prospective borrower, of an application as defined in Section 1008.23 (a request in any form for an offer, or a response to a solicitation of an offer, of residential mortgage loan terms, and the information about the borrower or prospective borrower that is customary or necessary in a decision whether to make such an offer)

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Taking a Loan Application Defined
  - Example #1 LR Action
    - Ed has received a borrower's or prospective borrower's application request or application information from a person who took the application request/information from a borrower or prospect
  - Example #1 LR Meaning
    - Ed cannot avoid licensing requirements by having another person physically receive information or complete an application and then passing it on to him

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Taking a Loan Application Defined
  - Example #2 LR Action
    - Linda takes the application but is not responsible for verifying application information
  - Example #2 LR Meaning
    - Any person, including Linda or a mortgage broker, who collects and sends information to a lender who makes the ultimate lending decision, requires an MLO license

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Taking a Loan Application Defined
  - Example #3 LR Action
    - Nick only inputs the information into an online application or other automated system. He is not involved in approval of the loan, including determining whether the consumer qualifies for the loan
  - Example #3 LR Meaning
    - Similar to Linda, Nick is still deemed to be “taking a residential mortgage loan application” even if he is not ultimately responsible for approving the loan

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Not Taking a Loan Application Defined
  - Example NLR Actions
    - Receiving application through mail and forwarding it, without review, to loan approval personnel
    - Explaining contents of application or how to complete borrower information on application
    - Generally describing the loan application process
  - Example NLR Meaning
    - Taking a residential mortgage loan application excludes individual whose only role is physically handling a completed application form or transmitting a completed form to a lender on behalf of a borrower or prospective borrower

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Offering or Negotiating Terms Defined
  - Example #1 LR Actions
    - Presenting for consideration by a borrower or prospective borrower particular loan terms, whether verbally, in writing, or otherwise, even if:
      - Further verification of information is necessary
      - The offer is conditional
      - Other individuals must complete the loan process
      - The individual lacks authority to negotiate the interest rate or other loan terms
      - The individual lacks authority to bind the person who is the source of the prospective financing

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Offering or Negotiating Terms Defined
  - Example #2 LR Actions
    - Communicating directly or indirectly with a borrower or prospective borrower for the purpose of reaching a mutual understanding about prospective residential mortgage loan terms even if a mutual understanding is not subsequently achieved
      - Includes responding to a borrower's or prospective borrower's request for a different rate or different fees on a pending loan application by presenting to the borrower or prospective borrower a revised loan offer

MLO License Compliance

- Not Offering or Negotiating Terms Defined
  - Examples NLR Actions
    - Providing general explanations or descriptions in response to consumer queries, such as explaining loan terminology, lending policies, or product-related services
    - Arranging the loan closing or certain other aspects of the loan process
    - Providing a borrower or prospective borrower with information unrelated to loan terms
    - Making an underwriting decision about whether the borrower or prospective borrower qualifies for a loan

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Not Offering or Negotiating Terms Defined
  - Examples NLR Actions
    - Explaining or describing the steps that a borrower or prospective borrower would need to take in order to obtain a loan offer
    - Communicating on behalf of an MLO that a written offer has been sent to a borrower or prospective borrower without providing any details of that offer
    - Offering or negotiating loan terms solely through a third-party licensed MLO, as long as non-licensed individual does not represent to public that he can/will perform covered activities and does not communicate with borrower/potential borrower

MLO License Compliance

- For Compensation or Gain Defined
  - The individual receives or expects to receive, in connection with the individual's activities, any "thing of value"
  - Includes, but not limited to, payment of a salary, bonus, or commission
  - "Thing of value" is interpreted broadly and is not limited only to payments that are contingent upon the closing of a loan

Section 1008.103(c)(1)

MLO License Compliance

- Engaged in Business of MLO Defined
